Looking for an afternoon of wedding talk, tasty food, cocktails and Britto art? Then you can't miss the "Signature Britto Wedding Expo" on Sunday, June 14TH, 2009, from 1-4PM.

Texas de Brazil, which is renowned and conveniently located in South Beach, 300 Alton Road, Miami Beach, FL, has the private ballroom to host your dream wedding of 150+ guests, or other rooms to choose from (since there are quite a few) to meet the needs of any size fantasy wedding, and their food is something to brag about as well.

Their lovely bar area is the ideal spot for your guests to start getting into the swing of your reception, enjoying the cocktail hour with a spectacular view to Fisher Island, which is breathtaking. A carefully selected group of vendors will be present to show you what can happen when you put together some of the best wedding professionals under one roof. Like icing on the cake, lest we forget that Romero Britto art will be on display as well as centerpieces and decorations inspired by the Britto art collection.

If there is a bridal show in town that you must attend, THIS IS THE ONE!
